1- The Nature Shop-Azraq

The Wild Jordan Nature Shop carries a wide selection of handicrafts produced by local women residing near The Royal Society for the Conservation of Nature's protected areas. RSCN's socioeconomic development program's mission is to develop nature-based businesses within and around RSCN's protected areas, in order to bring economic and social benefits to local communities and generate support for nature conservation through Jordan. Wild Jordan is the commercial brand of The Royal Society for the Conservation of Nature and its revenues contribute to the sustainability of RSCN's protected areas and supports the socioeconomic development of local communities.
